Summary

Hi there! I'm Sushant Rai, a passionate 3rd-year B.Tech Computer Science student with a flair for AI and ML.

About Me:

Pursuing Full Stack and Web 3 Development: I thrive on building seamless, user-friendly web experiences that push the boundaries of what's possible.

Proficient in Programming Languages: Java, Python, and C++ are my trusted companions in the coding journey.

Data Structures and Algorithms Enthusiast: I love solving complex problems efficiently and elegantly.

Why Collaborate with Me?

Eager to Connect: Let's chat about tech, innovation, or anything under the digital sun! I'm all ears for exciting collaborations.

Web Enthusiast: Whether it's front-end magic or back-end wizardry, I'm ready to dive into the web development universe.

AI and ML Aficionado: From neural networks to data pipelines, I'm fascinated by the endless possibilities of artificial intelligence.

Let's Create Together:

Feel free to drop me a message—I'm always up for brainstorming, collaborating, or just sharing cat memes!
